

Shoplifting Added to Burglary On List of Suppressed Crimes

Shop-lifting joined burglary yesterday on the list of crimes that have broken out in Pottstown within the past month.

Two women's suits — one expensive, one of medium price — were stolen from Phyllis Anne Dress shop, 364 High street, shortly before Easter. It was learned yesterday.

The shop owner, Mrs. A. Florence Smith, reported the theft to borough police, but the report joined the burglary reports that have not been made available to newsmen.

The shop-lifting occurred some time between the past Wednesday and the past Friday. Mrs. Smith discovered one of the suits missing Friday morning, and on a check that night, learned of the other one's loss. Both had been on suit racks in the store.

ANOTHER CASE of shop-lifting learned of yesterday preceded the present crime wave but was a classic example of shoplifters' brazenness.

Mrs. Mae Leeder, owner of the Mae Leeder shop, High and Evans streets, caught this shop-lifter — a man — red handed.

Two women, apparently confederates of his, took the saleswoman to the back of the store to look at dresses they expressed interest in. By coincidence, Mrs. Leeder happened to come out of her office as the man was alone in the front of the shop.

A look at the man made her suspicious. A look at his coat made her very suspicious. It bulged.

MRS. LEEDER politely asked him whether he'd noticed that his coat was bulging in a rather unusual fashion.

Without further ado, the man admitted his guilt, opened his coat to reveal the dress he was trying to steal and offered to pay for it.

Mrs. Leeder declined this offer and told him and his confederates to get out and stay out. They did.

Theft Try Failed

What was a good start toward being the most daring recent burglary in Pottstown is pointed out by Marilyn Berriker. Would-be burglars, standing less than 20 feet from a street light at High and York street, pried off a strip of wood preparatory to removing a pane of glass from this door to the grille and coffee shop of Merchants hotel. The door faces High street. Miss Berriker lives on Pottstown RD 7.

Police 'Gag' Slips Again as Another Hushed Burglary Try Is Uncovered

The attempted break-in at a High street hotel's grille, less than 20 feet from a street light, set a new high in daring for the present crime outbreak.

It also was the seventh burglary or attempt in the borough in the past month, and the second crime report brought police attempted to withhold from the public.

Would-be burglars stood outside the grille and coffee shop of the Merchants hotel Sunday or, more probably, early Monday and pried off a long strip of wood from a pane of the locked door.

The door is less than 20 feet from the "white way" street light on the corner. It also is only the width of the sidewalk from High street.

G. Thomas Zellers, owner manager of the hotel, discovered the attempted break-in Monday morning.

Adding to the daring of the attempt was the fact that the hotel has someone on desk duty 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Edward James, who was deskman Monday morning, told Zellers that at 4 a. m. Monday, he heard the sound of a car engine running and the sound of men's voices at the front of the hotel.

As a routine check, James came from behind the desk and walked the few yards to the nearest window facing High street. As he did so, men got into the car and sped away.

ZELLERS CHECKED the hotel grille and the barroom behind it and found nothing missing. Police investigated but withheld any report of it for newsmen to pass on to their readers.

Also withheld from newsmen in the past month was the burglary of Souders' East End Sports shop from which $50 in shotgun shells and 22 caliber bullets was stolen.

Other burglaries of the period have included a drug-store burglary, a break-in at a beauty shop, a safe-cracking attempt at an auto agency and the attempted forcing of the office of a loan company.

IN CHARGE OF negotiations for the union were Lawrence Long, president of the executive committee; George Sheffield, business agent; Kenneth Neuman, recording secretary; Floyd Cook, Ralph Moyer, Chester Kimes, Lester McDaniels and Stanley Russell.

Officials of the Keystone Drawn Steel company were Willard N. Lynch Jr., president; Joseph Glone, vice president; Orville Lingenfelter, treasurer, and James J. Leyden.

AN executive group of Pottstown's athletic council yesterday sifted through the coaching proposals submitted by 55 Edward Y. Good, athletic director this past March 17.

After more than an hour of discussion in the Senior High school, members voted to hold another meeting on the afternoon of April 20.

In a prepared written statement on March 17 Good said he would like to retain his job as basketball coach but resign as baseball coach with a decrease in pay.

The veteran coach serves as athletic director.

IN A two-page proposal Good presented his stand on all phases of his work as athletic director and head coach in basketball and baseball.

CIVIL SERVICE CHIEF BLASTS 'POT SHOTTING'

Police Committee Sniping At Examination Program Gets Roasting

MYERS SAYS GROUP CAN GET ALL INFORMATION

The chairman of the Pottstown Civil Service commission yesterday warned the borough's police committee not to take any more "political pot shots" at him.

In an interview with The Mercury, he said angrily that if the police committee wants information about the men who take examinations for jobs on the police force they can "get it any time, they want to in borough hall. And they know it."

Herbert S. Myers, chairman of the Civil Service commission since its formation 11 years ago, was riled up over statements made by members of the police committee at a meeting the past Monday night.

At that time, the committee (1) wanted to know why tests had been given to Edward Koszowski even though the commission knew he was over 35 years of age, and (2) stated that the commission's reports on men flunking exams should contain more information.

"IN THE FIRST place," Myers said, "there's no such rule on our book about the 35-year age limit. We talked, several years ago, about making it 40 years of age, and then brought it down to 35. But there was never anything definitely set. No such rule exists, the fiery chairman said.

Anyway, he said, Koszowski was only two months over 35.

About the second point brought out at the meeting, Myers said the commission's request was "very unfair."

The situation was this: Only three out of 11 applicants passed the civil service tests and only those three names were submitted to the police committee.

Chairman Earl R. Strange of the police committee said the reports should include information on why only three passed.

"I THINK IT would be very unfair to the men who failed the exam, for one reason or other, to make their failure public. Regardless of whether a man fails for intelligence reasons or physical reasons, the minute people know about a failure that man's chance of getting other jobs is cut way down."

Once such a list of names is submitted at a public meeting, the list becomes matter of public record.

"I'll say this. That in all the (Continued on Page Eleven)

COAL CARRIER SMASHES TRUCK AT INTERSECTION

Driver Narrowly Misses Injury or Death In Collision

BY FRED C. SELBY (Mercury Staff Writer)

Edward D. Heimbach, 181 North Franklin street, narrowly escaped serious injury or death early yesterday when the bread truck he was driving was bowled-over by a coal truck and sent sliding on its side into two parked cars.

The accident happened at 1:05 o'clock at an intersection in North-east Reading. Heimbach said he was going through the intersection, the green light with him, when the coal-laden tractor trailer bore down on him from the cross street and hit the left rear of his truck.

Pieces of living glass from the bread truck whistled through the air with enough speed to slice cleanly through a fender of one of the parked cars.

Gasoline spured over the truck. Mechanics told Heimbach that what prevented the truck from bursting into flames was that its body was made of aluminum, which, unlike steel, could not spark from the friction of the slide on the street.

THE ENTIRE contents of the Schulz wholesale delivery truck were ruined. Contents included 500 loaves of bread, rolls and cakes. Heimbach estimated that total damage to the truck and its contents would be at least $1200.

Riding with him in the front seat was Lee Lutz, Bernville RD 2, Berks county, whom Heimbach was training. Both were given dispensary treatment for cuts and bruises, and expect to return to St. Joseph's hospital, Reading, for a further check up.

Heimbach said he and Lutz fell over top of each other as the bread truck was knocked onto its side. When the truck's slide was finished, they crawled out through the shattered windshield as the truck lay on its right side.

After realizing the ignition still was on, the 47-year-old Heimbach crawled back through the windshield to turn it off and reduce the danger of a fire.

THE FRONT of the big coal truck hit the rear bumper of the (Continued on Page Eleven)

Hit-Run Car Strikes Auto Parked on Swamp Pike

A 1932 sedan parked on Swamp pike near Dotterer road in New Hanover township was struck by a hit-and-run vehicle last night at 9:20 o'clock and damaged to the extent of $150.

Robert R. Fritz, Gilbertsville, RD, is the owner of the damaged car.

Jeffersonville State Troopers John R. Schneider and Harry Newman, investigating officers, said the hit-and-run car was in front and rear of the car were smashed.

Council Okays Street Bond Issue to Out-of-Town Firm

Bonds at 1 1/2 percent interest for the borough's $100,000 street improvement program were approved by council last night.

In record-close bidding the contract went to the Philadelphia firm of Schaeffer-Necker company.

The out-of-town bid topped a bid submitted by Security Trust company, Pottstown, by just $3.

Both firms agreed to handle the bond issue for 1 1/2 percent interest, but Schaeffer-Necker offered to pay the borough a premium of $260. Security Trust company offered a premium of $237.

Two other Philadelphia firms were out of the running. DeHaven and Townsend, Crouter and Bodine bid the issue at a premium of $289, but asked an interest rate of 2 1/4 percent.

Harriman and Ripley company sought the contract at 2 percent on a premium of $529.

Council voted 11 to 2 in favor of awarding the contract to Schaeffer-Necker company.

Paul P. Kohler, Second ward, and William B. Twaddell, Fourth ward, voted against the contract.

KOHLER QUALIFIED his vote. "I feel all bids should be rejected because we've had only one petition for new streets."

Residents on Wilson street from Spruce to Logan street have petitioned for new construction.

Paul Marshall, Tenth ward, Edward H. Hunnicutt, Eighth ward, Peter J. Lawler, Third ward; Charles S. Grubb, Ninth ward; Ernest C. Hurter, Sixth ward; Michael G. Sweda, Third ward; Gustav H. Schade, Ninth ward; J. Wayne Knouse, Seventh ward; Stanley Zawaski, Fourth ward; Wilbert O'Dell, Eighth ward, and William H. Reilsnyder, Sixth ward, voted for the contract.

Council then passed an ordinance to expedite the bond issue and awarded a contract to print bonds to E. A. Wright company, Philadelphia, for $137.

THE ISSUE WILL run for 10 years. The first year the borough will pay a total of $1175 on retirement and interest. Total interest for the 10 years will be $10,512. The issue will mature in 1963.

Borough officials were happy over what they considered a "favorable" interest rate. They explain the low rate on the shortness of the issue and the good standing of the borough.

The issue was the first for the borough since 1948 when a (Continued on Page Eleven)

Salvation Army Launches Campaign To Meet Current Operating Budget

Slashed $13,500 in its allocation, deficit can be realized through this request from the United Fund, the campaign," Beacraft said. "If so, the Salvation Army yesterday appealed to residents of Pottstown to help make up the deficit."

The plea was contained in a letter mailed yesterday to 6600 persons who were urged to approve and support the work of the local branch of the Salvation Army by becoming members of a newly organized Salvation Army Friends' League.

The letter pointed out that the Salvation Army needs $2300 to enable it to meet its operating budget without curtailing its activities. This figure is the minimum required, O. C. Beacraft, chairman of the advisory board, pointed out.

He added that even if this amount is raised it still will be necessary to solicit funds in taprooms and public buildings.

"WE ARE hoping that the entire (Continued on Page Eleven)

Gasoline Price War Starts Rolling Again

The current gasoline price war, which had almost gone limp from inactivity, got another shot in the arm yesterday when still another proprietor dropped his price to 23.9 cents a gallon for regular gas.

A week ago, most dealers were ready to let the war come to a quiet end. Most of them, who had been selling at rock bottom prices for nearly three months, eased up and started adding a penny to their prices.

But this week, Kenneth Buchert, owner of the Sanatoga garage and self-admittedly one of the starters of the war, dropped his price down to 23.9 cents a gallon.

Immediately, during the past several days, dozens of Pottstown dealers lowered their prices again — most of them from 25.9 cents to 24.9.

Policy on all future street construction in the borough was established last night by highway-sewer committee.

Members waded through the muddled history of broken streets. The strands of different policies in different years in different sections of the borough were woven into a firm plan for all future street improvement and construction.

Solicitor C. Edmund Wells referred the session which resulted in the unanimous approval of the plan. Committeemen agreed only after dozens of questions and the explosion of several tempers.

Meeting after a special council session the committee made one change in the building ordinance and agreed to a four-point policy explained by Wells and derived from existing borough ordinances.

In the future, builders, both individuals and contractors, will provide bonds or cash for the estimated costs of street construction. The estimated costs will be determined by Borough Manager Horace B. Guiden.

THE ORDINANCE as approved this past Summer provided street construction bonds be provided for twice the amount of costs. This was the only change in the ordinance.

Members had their axes to grind when the meeting opened. Wells did not disappoint them.

He explained all future construction.

1. The $100,000 street-improvement bond issue passed by council early this year can be used to pave committed streets on the one-third, two-thirds plan and can be used to pave streets in new sections of the borough, all costs to be paid by the property owners.

2. Streets which the borough promised to construct prior to 1951 should be built on the one-third, two-thirds plan. The list of committed streets shall be determined by checking borough records.

3. The borough is not permitted to construct streets on a (Continued on Page Ten)

Defense Plans to File New Trial Motion for Convicted Youth, 17

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, April 8—Defense Attorney C. Edmund Wells announced this afternoon that he will file new trial motions for a Pottstown youth, 17, who was convicted on a charge of sodomy this morning in a sealed verdict returned to Judge George C. Corson by a jury of eight women and four men.

At the same time, the jury acquitted the boy on three counts of solicitation to commit sodomy.

Judge Corson directed the defendant to appear next Friday for sentence unless the motions for a new trial are filed in the meantime.

After the verdict was returned, Judge Corson ordered the defendant's bail increased from $500 to $1000. He was remanded to jail and later released when the additional bond was posted.

THE YOUNGSTER was accused of misconduct with four young boys from August to December of the past year. He was arrested Jan. 5 and questioned by Police Chief James A. Lawhead and Motor Patrolman Earl Rhoads.

In his statements to the police, the boy steadfastly denied his guilt. He was turned over to Probation Officer Peter J. Frascino for prosecution in juvenile court, but the case was cordoned to deny the charges.

Davidson Is Called Victor in Elections By Tellers' Board

The board of tellers of the United Steel Workers (CIO), which investigated the disputed election for District 7 director has named, Richard G. Davidson victor in its official report it was learned yesterday.

The report will not be made public for awhile.

Incumbent H. Charles Ford, who reported victory after the disputed February election by 450 votes, has announced he will appeal the tellers decision to the executive board of the international union.

Nearly 100 members of local union which gave majorities to Ford met yesterday with David J. McDonald, USW president, to protest a decision of the tellers in rejecting the votes of five pro-Ford locals.

The incumbent director who will serve until the end of May warned members against threat.

No Voice is Heard

POTTSTOWN needs diversified industry.
Many claims are made by Chamber of Commerce officials about their diligence in searching for new plants. Committees have been appointed, but so far as has been publicized, no reports of progress have been made.

It is because of missed opportunities?
The Chamber of Commerce actually making efforts to get new industry here to fill the plants vacated by firms like Publix Shirt and Vaughan Knitting?

It looks like the Chamber of Commerce isn't covering all angles, because this Pottstown group hasn't been alert on a recent advertisement published in The Mercury.

Although the advertisement was headed "Attention Chamber of Commerce," Pottstown's Chamber of Commerce never answered the plea.

The advertisement was for a "Modern Plant Wanted In Up-to-Date Cooperative Community." It related a well established children's shoe manufacturer wanted to hire at least 200 persons, a majority female.

The plant required 10,000 to 15,000 square feet with room for expansion! Payroll would be three-quarters of a million dollars annually. That's almost $15,000 weekly!

It was an attractive advertisement.
You'd think the Pottstown Chamber of Commerce would hop to an opportunity like this. If buildings weren't available, maybe some civic-minded contractors would erect one. After all, the Chamber had talked of such a scheme before.

And as for employing 200 women, what a break that would be for Pottstown. Because most of the plants closed here in recent months were big employers of women.
Lots of Pottstown women still are looking for work.

But the Pottstown Chamber of Commerce evidently didn't consider the plea worthy of answer. So far as is known, the local organization hasn't told the advertiser what a great place Pottstown is to locate, or what Pottstown could do for him.

Others, however, were alert to the prospects. The Contractors and Builders exchange, aggressive, new Pottstown group, through Real Estate Brother Jimmy Moore, was quick to send Pottstown's story to the advertiser.

Let's hope the Moore committee will get action. It will be a feather in the hat for an up-and-coming group.

Crime Doesn't Pay

SHOPLIFTING is the oldest of problems to Pottstown merchants. The Mercury today publishes another account of how local merchants were victimized by these light-fingered gentry.

Shoplifting has become more acute with the spread of the self-service system of selling goods on what amounts to an honor basis.

The vast majority of customers are honest, but the crooked few must always be combated. In late years merchants have intensified their efforts in this regard—with marked success.

The American Stores of Philadelphia recently listed some two-score tricks of the light-fingered artists, but said it had no intention of disclosing to the looters measures employed by the police and stores to curb this lawless activity.

Teen-agers, women and men use all sorts of devices and stratagems to hide their loot—hats, handbags, double socks, inside pockets, large sleeves, heavy socks with elastic tops, hollowed out books, musical instrument cases, umbrellas, bandaged arms, rolls of toilet paper, baby carriages, waist bands of trousers, rubberized panel inserts for sweaters, flowing coats, maternity gowns, and many others. Teen-agers often work in groups.

In spite of all this ingenuity, the shoplifter is almost invariably caught.

Theft is relative—some thieves steal merchandise, others steal nations.
But crooks finally wind up in deep trouble—as witness history.

Ighats!

EVER hear of IGHATS? It is the slogan of a new mass movement and it means
"I'm gonna holler about taxes."

It had its beginnings at a Cedar Rapids community luncheon where industrial workers earning $3400 a year learned that they were paying $1100 a year in taxes. $800 of which is hidden.

It has been spreading fast. Ministerial groups, union locals, chamber of commerce and other such organizations have promised it support.

How about joining up?

Editor, The Mercury,
Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by the papers where Margaret Truman has been offered over a thousand pounds a week to sing at a swank London club during Coronation Week. She could do it to the queen's taste, too!

Biggest sports news of the day, I think in Lee Burocher's failure to appear at a Denver banquet at which he was top guest. Imagine Lippy

marshkjold!

READERS SAY:

Let Draftees Leave at Noon

Plan for Draftees

To the Editor: For a long time I have been thinking of writing to tell you that I think someone on the draft board should try to do something about the inhumane present practice of sending draftees off for induction at 6:30 in the morning.

Being drafted is bad enough, but having it start in the depressing early morning gloom is just too much. And don't let the Army say they need all that time to process the men.

They spend about two hours examining them and so forth, and about 12 hours haying them stand in a corner and bite their fingernails.

Let's send the boys off at high noon.
The only thing that dawn is a good time for is hanging people.
Pottstown VETERAN

Draft Isn't Fair

To the Editor: I never saw such a young looking group of draftees as the boys whose pictures appeared in The Mercury recently. Many of them looked like Junior High school pupils.

Several years ago there was lot of beefing about beginning universal military training in the United States. The system would be more impartial than the present one.

At least there would be no draft dodging by many boys attending college.

Many boys can't afford to go to college unless they work for a year or two after graduation from high school.

That does not give them a chance to earn enough money before they are called by the army.

If we are going to draft 19 year-olds,

let's not be partial about it. Let's draft all of them.

As soon as a boy reaches a certain age he should be inducted. That way the program would treat everyone equally.

Safety in Fagleyville

To the Editor: In Fagleyville a parent asked the school directors for a shelter for school children located near Faust road and Swamp pike because the children are exposed to rains and storms.

The school directors did not get in touch with the parents of the children involved and ask these people to bear with them and do the best they could as they were trying to hold down expenses.
No, they couldn't because the taxpayers would have to pay for it and I am a taxpayer also.

They just went ahead and moved the bus stop sign to the most dangerous place they could. Right on the crest of the Fagleyville hill.

Just supposing a car would try to pass this bus while stopping on the hill and a big heavy truck was coming the other way at a high rate of speed.

They never go slow at that spot. Do you think the truck could stop on the spot? No, we all know it couldn't. What would be the cause of it?

Aren't some of the parents concerned about the safety of the children?

As soon as some of the parents learned of the change, they called the president of the school board and asked him to please put them back for safety sake and forget about the shelter.

He said that he would do all he could.
Well, last week he made a statement that they would be moved this past weekend but they still have to be moved.

If these school directors don't want to correct their blunder and do what is fair and safe, somebody else will look into it for the sake of all children. We love our children and we also have respect for other people's children.

This is no bull. This is plain cold turkey.

Pleasure of Giving

To the Editor: Your paper has outdone itself stressing the importance of the need for blood donations. Many patriotic citizens have responded, yet a vast reservoir of manpower is untapped.

I know because I was one—one of the thousands of normal, healthy individuals who at the call for a donor, rose in inspiration and seconds later shuddered at visions of hospital walls, white-clad attendants, the frightening aroma of anesthetics and horror of horrors, a needle.

It just isn't so. When you leave the hospitable surroundings of the blood bank you will chuckle at yourself that you have relegated another bogeyman in the past. You will find the blood bank staffed by equally cheerful and understanding personnel.

The polio season will soon be upon us and blood will be needed for the much much heralded inoculations. There is the incentive.

The reward? A warm spot in your heart expressed by all donors and a little white card from the blood bank giving the date of your donation—your red badge of courage.

McCarthy Draws Ire Of Colorado Senator

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, April 8 — Senator
"Joe" McCarthy's interference in diplomatic negotiations with Greek ship owners allegedly carrying goods to Russia has brought him into another showdown clash with the Republican leadership of the Senate. His own colleagues now resent his tactics.

This backstage row explains why President Eisenhower was so slow to engage in open and angry controversy with the Wisconsin firebrand over his invasion of the executive jurisdiction. The White House has been informed that, as in the Bohlen case, the Senate itself will restrict McCarthy's extracurricular performances.

When he was attacking government subversives, he was invulnerable because critics might open themselves to counter charges that they were Communist sympathizers. But he has lowered his guard in his more recent bouts.

MILLIKIN FURIOUS: Whereas the Bohlen brawl led Senator Taft to line up against McCarthy, the Greek affair has embroiled the Wisconsin Senator with an equally respected and redoubtable GOP leader—Sen. Eugene D. Millikin of Colorado. Senate Finance Committee chairman.

He maintains that McCarthy's secret one-man crusades destroy orderly processes of government at the legislative and executive ends of Pennsylvania avenue. In his opinion, they smack too violently of the methods of the Spanish Inquisition. They permit individual Senators to level public charges against private citizens without a full inquiry and prior sanction for disclosures by responsible Senate agencies.

In short, the GOP leadership seeks to end the system under which a single member may use his Senate prestige to browbeat other branches of the government, and condemn fellow-Americans without a hearing.

They insist that they do not intend to curb proper stony of executive policies, which was a popular Senate concern under Truman. They deny that they aim to protect the new Republican Administration. They simply maintain that there is sufficient legislative machinery for orderly and responsible discharge of investigative duty.

McCarthy's private deal with Greek maritime interests was too raw and revolutionary for even his Senate sympathizers. He admits that he made the nonbinding agreement without consulting fellow-committeemen. It was strictly a private adventure.

TO RESTRAIN HEADLINE HUN-TERS: In order to re-institute responsible procedure, Millikin has imposed restraints on a successful and able scourge of downtown crooks conducted by Sen.
John J. Williams of Delaware. It was Williams who, working alone, exposed Internal Revenue grafters under Truman.

As chairman of a Senate Finance subcommittee, Williams wants to continue his unfinished investigation.
But Millikin demands that he make public no charges or suspicions against alleged offenders without advance approval of a Finance committee majority.

"What we are doing," explains Millikin, "is to restrain some blabbermouth, some headline hunter, from going out and ruining citizens. The notion that one man's judgment may be infallibly accepted as to what is wrong and what is not is the key to the door of every room of tyranny."

Millikin explained that he was not referring to Senator Williams!

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

JOYCE P. gave me the following very interesting report about her mother, who reads this column faithfully in the Charlotte News.

"Dr. Crane, your column is worth the entire price of our newspaper," Joyce generously complimented me.

"But my mother, who is 91 years of age, says she is 'shocked' at your frankness in dealing with sex problems in marriage. However, I notice she never fails to read what you say, and eagerly looks for your column next day!"

"For nearly 30 years I have been a friend and student of Dr. Josephine Jackson, author of Outwitting Our Nerves."

"Dr. Crane, you are placing before the public many of the facts she tried to publicize in 1912, but was ostracized even by doctors, themselves."

So keep it up! I am clipping all your Case Records and saving them for my grandchildren."

THERE IS such a thing as "timing," not only in professional sports and automotive engineering, but also as regards the release of scientific truths.

If you are too far ahead of your age, your fellow citizens will either torture or burn you at the stake, as in the case of Galileo and Savonarola, or try to be-litttle your professional and scientific standing, as in the case of the late Dr.
Sigmund Freud.

It is curious that even scientific truth must be tactfully "packaged" and diplomatically dressed up in some of the old, familiar garments or it will even be denounced from the pulpit.

For the leaders of the status quo always try to beat down new truths which may upset their outmoded control.

TRUE RELIGION and morality are simply mathematics and logic applied to human relationships. Jesus himself was a perfect example of the scientist, unfettered by red tape or ritual.

Jesus believed in removing stumbling blocks from a child's pathway.
Ignorance of sex facts is a stumbling block to modern youth, which is why I offer occasional Case Records on such subjects.

HOLLYWOOD, April 8—Cute
Maggie McNamara, who recently almost white—and wears a hard-to make her look like she had two heads! Perhaps Greta, plenty attractive, will tidy up her tresses for the new TV series she's doing with Dick Haymes. A half-hour gab and song show. . . . Sudden ambition: To introduce actor Ches-

THE NEW ROGERS and

Fortier won critic's award for confused with Joan's spouse, Rob Fosse, who's signed up at Rock Hudson (formerly of the meet Joan Crawford. We saw these two dancing together at Ed Lasker—Jane Greer soiree.

So we desay they know each other! Since then Rock has been rocking in the direction of "Rocky" Cooper.

TITLE OF "The Burning Arrow" is being changed to "The Charge at Feather River." Its star, Guy Madison and Helen Westcott have love scenes in this one that burn gets to kiss only his horse. All of which should give Guy's teenaged fans an extra swoon or three.

Van Johnson is getting four times his movie salary for the cafe stunt he started at The Sands in Las Vegas, April 16. Expected to open at a spot "down the road" at the same time, is the new act being broken in by Susan Zanuck
and Gregory Ratoff. Dorothy Shay and Kenny Moore, the handsome Texan who soon screen debuts, are heavy-romancing. . . . Fiery Anna Magnani gets to Gotham tomorrow for the opening of her latest

she may fly to Filmville.

Union Rites Fill Church
Almost to Capacity
Mark

RIDGE ROAD—Life McDonald, del.
Phone Eagle 3-3219.

Easter Dawn service was held, 8:30 at the Brownback's Evangelical Reformed church, Ridge road. There was an attendance of 318 persons.

The historic building was filled almost to capacity. The service is held annually under the sponsorship of the Union of churches, East Coventry Township. It includes the host church, Bethel Methodist, Parkerford Baptist and Brethren churches.

The Rev. Dr. Ralph S. Weiler, Philadelphia, eastern field secretary of the Board of National Missions of the Evangelical Reformed church, addressed the group. He stated that people join in worship at Easter not to find an empty tomb but a risen Lord. The only hope of civilization is not the United Nations, not the millions of dollars that are being spent, but Jesus Christ.

It is not enough to believe Jesus was a great man, he added, but the deity of Jesus, the divine son of God, was put here on earth to save you and me. To some, Easter is just a beautiful story, he said, but your Easter and my Easter is an experience. If you can say, "My Lord," no one can take Him away from you, he said.

IN CONTINUING his address, Dr. Weiler said, "The risen Christ was seeking His disciples far more than they were seeking Him. He met the disciples on the road while the women were at the tomb. He will meet us in our homes, if we will allow Him to be the head of our homes. He will meet us in our business relations, in the halls of Congress and in our Government, but we must come to Him."

Dr. Weiler compared the success of the growth of this country, where the foundations were laid on the desire to worship God according to the dictates of the consciences of the people to other countries, where the quest for gold was the guiding desire.

For 15 minutes preceding the regular program a brass quintette played traditional Easter music. Musicians were: Donald Priester, Robert Rupert, Dale Hallman, Coleman Coates and Ruth Kenaga, Pottstown, organist of Brownback's church, was at the console during the service. The choir was directed by Mrs. Lee Bruggess.

The Rev. Elmer E. Fahringer is pastor of the host church.

The program included the following numbers: Prelude, "The Easter Garden" by Lerend, played by Miss Kenaga; The Scripture lesson read by the Rev. Alvin S. Alderfer, pastor, Parkerford church of the Brethren; A hymn, led by the Rev. R. Earle Marcus, pastor, Parkerford Baptist church; Easter dawn prayer—led by the Rev. Thomas E. Anderman, pastor Bethel Methodist church; Anthems, "In the End of the Sabbath" and "Behold the King of Glory" from "King of Glory" by Morrison; Offertory "Lamb of God," Bizet; Postlude, "Easterise," by Aganek.

THE OFFERING of the day will be sent to Korea for relief of war refugees.

A feature of the service was the large display of Easter flowers. The front of the church was transformed by the offerings, which had been brought to the church honoring parents and friends as well as in memory of deceased persons.

Flowers in the altar vases were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Huston, in memory of their grandparents. The Golden Rule class brought a basket to honor their teacher, Mrs. Russel Stauffer. One basket was presented by the Young Peoples department, a second, for Mrs. Elmer Fahringer, was given by Mr. and Mrs. Rose Gordon.

Controls, Statehood
Next on Senate List

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The Senate Republican Policy committee today tabbed economic controls and Hawaiian statehood measures to follow the submerged oil lands bill, now under debate, to the Senate floor.

It also decided the Senate should not hold a session Monday—the day the Washington Senators and New York Yankees open the American league baseball season. Chairman Knowland (R-Calif.) said today the GOP leadership still is shooting for July 4 adjournment of Congress but he indicated Aug. 1 was more likely.

DOUBLE JET AGE FAILS TO RETURN FROM MISSION

Captain Fischer Is Missing After Separation From Flight

SEUL, THURSDAY, April 5 (AP) — Capt. Harold E. Fischer Jr., double jet ace of the Korean war, failed to return from a flight into North Korea Tuesday after his Sabre jet became separated from other planes of his flight.

The Iowa farm boy who told an AP correspondent two weeks ago, "I have never considered the possibility of not coming back," now is listed as missing in action.

Fischer, 27, of Sweta City, Iowa, shot down ten Communist MIGs in only 46 missions. He preferred what he called "Kentucky windage"—leading MIGs like ducks—to the Air Force's famed secret radar gun. His buddies were betting on him to become the leading jet ace of the Korean war. He was the modest hero of his Sabre jet base—a tall, blue-eyed fellow who wanted to raise prize cattle and wanted to go home to his father's 200-acre farm.

FISCHER FLEW 105 hazardous missions in F-80 shooting star jets before he began flying the swifter Sabres in combat. He had many close calls, but on March 23 he told an AP correspondent:

"Some pilots get premonitions. I have seen this happen in men I have known. You could see the signs of nervousness and lack of sleep. They figured they weren't coming back from some missions. It was on their mind. They were right, something did happen and they didn't come back."

Fischer and Capt. Manuel Fernandez Jr., also a double jet ace, returned only the past week from a visit to Tokyo. They had been called there by Far East Air Force headquarters for consultation. The subject of the consultation was not reported.

If Fischer had brought down three more MIGs he would have topped the mark set by Col. Royal N. Baker who went home to McKinney, Tex., the past month after flying 126 missions.

TAKES TAXI AWOL—Pvt. James Hanratty, 23, tries to cover his face as he is brought into a New York police station, charged with stealing a taxi in the Bronx and taking two students on a wild ride. On leave from Camp Kilmer, N. J., Hanratty was hailed in the stolen cab by the students whose cries attracted police when the young soldier refused to let them out.

STARTS NEW TOUR—Robert Appell, 22, son of Mrs. Myrtle Lindemuth, Pottstown RD 1, left Monday for Dover Air Force base in Delaware to begin a three-year enlistment in the Air Force. The youth was discharged from the Army the past June after serving five years with the engineer corps. Most of his Army service was spent overseas in the Solomon Islands, Hawaii and Alaska. He was discharged from the Army as a corporal and entered the Air Force with an equivalent rating.

Layman Strength Is Church's Foundation ER Consistories Told

RIDGE ROAD—Lyle McDonald, del. Phone 6212.

Robert Appell, Lancaster, addressed consistories' 120 members of Evangelical Reformed churches, Chester county, in St. Vincent's church, Ridge road.

He stated that the strength of the church depends upon a well-informed and active group of laymen.

"Laymen, if they become Christians, are ministers of the church," the speaker said, "and are responsible for Christ's church."

"We laymen expect the pastor of the church to do much too much without help enough. It is not enough for church congregations to meet once a year, elect officers and attend to the formal business. It should meet monthly or quarterly and think through the question of what it can do for the community in which they live."

"BOTH AS individuals and laymen," the speaker continued, "we have a terrific duty to perform in solving the problem of what can Christ's church do."

Appell told of consistorial work in Lancaster. Through the activities of the combined laymen of the church, all have been better acquainted and been drawn closer together, he said at the same time performing much more effective work.

The Reformation Day observance has become a tradition and a real experience for the large number of persons who participate. Between Christmas and Lent a school of Religion is held and late in May or early June an outdoor service is held at one of the outdoor churches, he added.

Appell is a son of the late Judge Appell, Lancaster. He is an attorney and serves as a member of the consistory of the First Reformed church, Lancaster.

He serves on the board of National Missions and has been chairman of the board of race relations.

UN Human Rights Delegates Dismayed By US Decision Not to Ratify Pact

GENEVA, Switzerland, April 5 (AP) — Delegates to the United Nations Human Rights commission expressed regret and dismay today over the American decision not to ratify covenants on human rights. The United States promptly sought to reassure them.

Mrs. Oswald B. Lord, US delegate, told the commission that rather than having a reduced interest in human rights, her Government wanted to advance and achieve them through broad action programs.

"She spoke after the Indian" delegate, Mrs. Kamaladevi Chattopadhyay, had recited the American announcement "takes the bottom out of the work of this commission" and other delegates protested that it would jeopardize future progress.

The commission has been trying since 1948 to complete international covenants guaranteeing to citizens of countries ratifying them such basic rights as freedom of speech, freedom of press, freedom of religion, voting privileges and the like.

MRS. LORD read a message from President Eisenhower saying that the commission's work was assuming "greater importance and meaning," but there was a "need for a new approach to the development of a human rights conscience in all areas of the world."

Then she stated clearly the United States position that "in the present stage of international relations it would not ratify the covenants."

After other delegates had expressed their disappointment, Mrs. Lord said in the hope of reassuring them:

"We regret greatly the views expressed by representatives that the bottom has been taken out of the work of the commission and that the work of the commission will be rendered theoretical and academic."

"We hope they will reread the statement of the President and my statement and then note that, far from reducing the scope of the work of this commission to a theoretical one, it is the earnest desire of the United States to restore the commission to the broad concept which animated its creation and to make it a working commission, carrying out action programs."

In a message read to the commission yesterday by Mrs. Lord, US Secretary of State Dulles suggested technical assistance programs an campaign to raise standards of living as important alternative approaches.

Southern Pacific Railroad Builds New Freight Yard

ROSEVILLE, Calif., April 5 (AP) — A vast freight yard, with more than 41 miles of new track has been constructed by the Southern Pacific here near the base of the Sierra Nevada.

It is a "pushbutton" classification yard, into which freight cars move by gravity under remote control, to be assembled according to their destinations.

'Deutschland' Played 19 Grange Members In US Cemetery Present Program at Plymouth Meeting

WASHINGTON, April 5 (AP) — The music of the German anthem — "Deutschland Uber Alles" — sounded today in Arlington National cemetery where many veterans of the war with Germany are buried.

It was played by the US Army band as a salute to West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer who went to the cemetery to place a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier.

MAY SOUND FISHY—Capt. C. Christiansen and crewman John Summers (right), of the trawler "Cambridge," measure the wingspread of a bird that flourished aboard their ship 250 miles out of Boston. Identified by the Massachusetts Audubon society as a black-crowned night heron, the bird was nursed back to health and has apparently given up flying. It has become the constant companion of Summers.

Clyde Sites Is Named To Fill Vacant Post On Douglass Board

Clyde P. Sites has been named treasurer of Douglas (Berks) school board to replace the late John J. McCartney.

Sites was elected at a meeting of the board Monday night at Pine Forge school. He has been a member of the board for the past two years.

The former treasurer served in the post for two years. He died the past March 22.

Because of the sudden loss of one of its key members, the board cut short its regular meeting. No plans were laid for a new budget.

A SPECIAL MEETING was announced to be held April 16 at 8 p. m. at Pine Forge school for the opening of bids on a new roof for the building.

The school has asked for bids to be submitted for the construction of an asphalt roof on the Pine Forge school.

He will speak on his firm's contribution to the community. Sanders and Thomas are the architects for the future West End school and Junior-Senior High school gymnasium.

Doehler Men Wait Word on Price Index Effect on Wage Rate

Officials of the Doehler-Jarvis company are still waiting to hear from the home office in Toledo about possible wage cuts for employees.

Spicer division employees had their wage rate cut one cent an hour the past week.

Both Doehler-Jarvis and Spicer are members of the United Auto Workers union (CIO).

Eden Arrives in London For Gall Bladder Surgery

LONDON, April 8 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden is in the London clinic for a gall bladder operation tomorrow.

The 55-year-old diplomat was in excellent spirits as he arrived at the hospital tonight in a car. He was accompanied by his wife, Clarissa, a niece of Prime Minister Churchill.

Eden cancelled plans to visit Turkey, Greece and Italy in order to undergo the operation on the advice of his doctors.

Area Men Leave For Induction Center

The latest group of inductees from the Pottstown area—31 strong—left yesterday morning from borough hall at 6:30 a. m.

The men, most of them in the 19-year-old bracket, will be inducted at Schuylkill arsenal in Philadelphia.

After meeting at 6 a. m., the 31 men were given a send-off by members of their families, the Tuckey, Greece and Italy in order to undergo the operation on the advice of his doctors.

Pope Tells Lawmen His Story's a Hoax

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, Ohio, April 8 (AP) — Frederick W. Pope, 27, tonight confessed his tale of cross country murder was a hoax prompted by a television program he saw, police said.

Connecticut State Police Detective R. N. Starr said Pope traveling Indianapolis jewelry salesman admitted the hoax after 12 hours of questioning today.

Stark came here to investigate the disappearance of Constance Smith, 10. Pope came into the Washington court house police station Monday and said he and a traveling companion had picked up the girl near Salisbury, Conn., and then drove her to Arizona. Pope told police his companion killed the child and he killed his friend.

GAS WAR ROLLS —

right in Pottstown pulled the not torn out and put up a sign for 23.9 cent, one of the lowest in town for the type gas he sells.

That dealer is Marshall Reed, proprietor of the East End Service station, 1350 High street.

Reed explained his sudden move this way:

"For three months I've been selling for 27 and 29 cents for regular and better. I kept waiting for the guys to come back up. Now it looks as though they're not. I decided to get into the act, but good. This'll give 'em a little more."

Reed in San Antonio, when contacted last night, seemed to be hesitant about lowering his prices any further.

"I'm at 23.9 now. I don't know whether I can go down any further. I'm waiting to hear from the company before I cut any more."

ACCORDING to Reed, none of the major home companies has taken part in the borough price war.

Glenn H. Shellenberger, Hick and Prince, used station owner who elects the gasoline prices in the community three months ago by undercutting the undercutters by one cent, said last night that he may cut his price again.

Shellenberger three months ago was selling for 23.9 when most other dealers were at 24.9 and 25.9. But the past week when the war started slacking he raised his price to 24.9, his present price, along with others.

"I thought everybody was about ready to throw in the sponge," he said. "I don't know what went wrong. But right now it doesn't look as though it's over by a long, hot, he added."

HE SAID he may go back down to 23.9.

Another of the station — that may drop its price is the Nat High station at High and Franklin streets.

That station is now selling for 24.9 cents a gallon regular and 26.9 for high test. The manager said he is also considering dropping prices further.

So the consensus seems to be that like it or not, the gasoline dealers in the borough are in for another stanza of price wars.

Broadcasting networks of the United States include ABC, CBS and NBC which include both television and radio. MBS which is purely radio and Dumont which is purely television.

With her tough guy husband away, Lauren said she needed the boxers to protect and play with her children.

Pick-Up Clue Found In Slaying of Girl

SCRANTON, April 8 (AP) — Margaret Grunk, 23, Jessup, who was killed by a car on Monday night, might be an unidentified woman who picked up a car to mobile home after he left home Monday at noon, police officers said.

Grunk, 23, given authority as that the girl — picked up in a machine driven by a man who he was waiting to board a bus for Scranton near her home.

NO DEFINITE description of the automobile was obtainable nor was the car's make or model.

Student Officer Finds Life's Not All Crime

KALAMAZOO, Mich., April 8 (AP) — Ray Davis is a student in police administration at Michigan State college.

At present he is assigned to the Kalamazoo police department to find police method.

Young Davis and a Kalamazoo patrolman were cruising in a police car. They were directed by a radio to answer a housewife's call for help.

They found a cat with its tail stuck in the motor pulley of a washing machine. But they were unable to free the cat.

So they had to call a washing machine mechanic. He freed the young cat by disassembling the motor.

Mau Mau Organizer Sentenced to Prison

KENYA, April 8 (AP) — A Mau Mau organizer, Kariakoo, was sentenced to three years in prison for being a member of Mau Mau.

Mau Mau is made up mostly of Kikuyu tribesmen who have taken a blood oath to drive the white man out of this agriculturally rich British East African colony. Murder and torture have been among its devices.

KENYATTA, a man of mystery in Kenya with Russian connections, was sentenced also to three years for being a member of Mau Mau.

stantial variance in the costs of paving in the different sections of the borough, then a uniform cost would seem practical, but if you are not sure of uniform costs then I think it would be a mistake to establish one rate. I think the rate can be based on estimates made by the borough manager."

The collector said the bond provision in the ordinance applied only to construction in the new sections of the borough where residents must pay total costs of new streets. He estimated the borough can build streets on the one third, two thirds plan any time and assess property owners for the costs.

The one third, two thirds plan provides the borough pay one third of the costs of street construction and the property owners on both sides of the street split the remaining two-thirds.

LATER THE committee in its decision, voted owners who live on streets which will be constructed under the one third, two thirds plan must provide a bond for their share of street costs or one third of total costs.

Paul P. Kohler, Second ward, Peter J. Lawler, Third ward,

Wells asserted, "From 1948 through 1950, commitments were made on new streets which were never paved. We estimated at one time the cost of these streets would run from $150,000 to $300,000."

Many of these streets still must be paved. I believe we made the promise to pave those streets on which homes exist. This ordinance does not apply to the construction of those streets. It applies to new streets or any street opened after 1951."

ON A PROPERTY where the one third, two thirds rule applies we have no worries because we can put in the streets and compel property owners to pay."

Wells explained the recent violation of new builders who have failed to provide cash or bonds to insure new street construction involved only residents on non committed streets.

Peter J. Lawler, Third ward, finally get things clarified we'll be in shape."

Schade said, "I think the main objection to the double bond which was required. We certainly don't want to stand in the way of development."

Wells added, "It's going to take a lot of research to see how these old streets were put in. After a flurry of hot words on the part of several committee members, Kohler cited the purpose of the plan for street construction. He said, "Sometimes we must start to do things right. From now on whenever a new development is started they know the conditions under which the streets will be built."

"Anyone who constructs a house must start to do things right. From now on whenever a new development is started they know the conditions under which the streets will be built."

Wells added, "It's going to take a lot of research to see how these old streets were put in. After a flurry of hot words on the part of several committee members, Kohler cited the purpose of the plan for street construction. He said, "Sometimes we must start to do things right. CHAMBER HERE COUNCIL OKAYS — URGES VOTE AGAINST TAX

Mercantile Group Wires House Membership on Proposed Levy

Pottstown's Chamber of Commerce is opposing the proposed 1 percent State sales tax, which comes up for a final vote today in the House of Representatives. Members of the chamber are being urged to telegraph their representatives in Harrisburg to vote against the bill, Ralph H. Spare, secretary of the chamber, said last night.

C. J. Keiser, chairman of the chamber's Mercantile bureau, has already telegraphed Montgomery county representatives in the House.

"Urge your vote against HR 909," his wire reads. "In the past our organization always opposed discriminatory retail sales tax."

HIS TELEGRAM is addressed to William A. Bolton, Raymond C. Kratz and Herman B. Willard, representatives of the Third (Montco) district.

Spare said this is the third time the Pottstown group has opposed such a tax. It went on record against similar measures in 1947 and 1949.

"And we will always go on record against such a bill," he added.

HR 909, the controversial Sales Tax bill, would levy for public school purposes exclusively a 1 percent tax on retail sales of tangible personal property, including food sold by hotels and restaurants but exempting liquor, cigarettes, gasoline and other motor fuels.

The bill provides that it is the legislative intent that the tax shall be passed on to and paid by the consumer.

The Republican majority in the House has announced its intention of putting the Sales Tax bill up for the final vote today, along with the rest of the tax program for the next two years.

"The Republican party will stand or fall on this tax in the 1954 gubernatorial election," House Majority Leader Albert W. John, of Smeethport, told John F. Means, managing director of the Pennsylvania Retailers' association, this week.

COACH GOOD —

phases of Good's outline were checked and the same group decided to meet on April 20.

Coaches were not present at the session. Any recommendation by the Athletic Council to the school board will have the approval of the council, which includes coaches.

Attending yesterday's session were William H. Yohn, Charles L. Rohland, H. Bert Shaw and H. C. Cresswell, of the school board, and Superintendent Dr. George A. McCormick, Stanley L. Davenport Jr., high school principal and William D. Mower, Junior High School principal.

Senate Bill Requires Mines' Back Filling

HARRISBURG, April 8 (AP) — The Senate today passed a bill to require backfilling of surface mine operations in such a way as to protect nearby streams from pollution and highways and buildings from damage.

The measure, sponsored by Sen. Robert D. Fleming (R-Allegheny), was approved unanimously and sent to the House.

It would require the mine operators to state in regular operation reports just how closely the bottom of their pits approach any stream of water having a well-defined channel.

$100,000 street issue was floated at 1 1/2 percent. Eighty-five thousand dollars remain to be paid on this issue.

Borough Manager Horace B. Gullen said the sinking fund of the borough is "in excellent" condition. He said total outstanding money was $353,000 with $123,000 in the sinking fund.

THE NET DEBT is $448,000. Each year the borough designates four mills property tax to the sinking fund.

Only $15,000 remains to be paid on the $50,000 permanent street issue of 1927. This issue will be retired in 1957.

Twenty-two thousand dollars remain on the $80,000 issue of 1924 for the construction of borough hall.

TRUCK SMASHED —

bread truck. The coal truck had little damage and its driver, John Haldeman Jr., Pine Grove RD 2, Schuylkill county, was not injured.

The bread truck, in its slide, damaged the entire left side of the parked car of Ralph G. Daubert, Reading. The flying glass sliced the fender of a car parked in front of it.

Heimbach had an abrasion on the top of the head and cuts of the face and complained of pain in his left thigh. Lutz had an abrasion of the right forearm and complained of pain in the small of his back.

Both men were taken to the hospital in an ambulance of Junior Fire company, Reading.

ANOTHER SCHULZ truck was loaded in Pottstown and sent up to the men, who completed their route. Another man went along to do the driving for them until their nerves had a chance to quiet.

The damaged truck was towed back to Pottstown.

Reading City Patrolman Leon Grossman, Sgt. Grant Dietrich and Detective William O. Focht investigated.

Borough Man Jailed On Burglary Charge

A 43-year-old Pottstown man was held without bail for court after a son, of Smeethport, told John F. Means, managing director of the Pennsylvania Retailers' association, this week.

Clarence Boyer, 43, 321 High street, pleaded not guilty before Seventh Ward Justice of the Peace Richard H. Cadmus at a hearing in borough hall at 5 p. m.

Boyer, who allegedly admitted to Chief James A. Laughhead and Plainclothesman Lewis M. Borquet that he had entered the premises of a beauty salon next to his apartment but that he didn't intend to steal anything, was arrested Monday afternoon.

He was arrested by Sgt. Thomas A. Lawler and Patrolman John G. Paretti after three children playing in the yard behind the building told Sgt. Lawler they had seen the man on the roof.

and a bump on his head. His watch and glasses were broken.

BAKER WAS OPERATING his car south on Route 100 and entered the Hanover House parking lot to make a "U" turn.

He allegedly struck the Rev. Story on private property. Baker carried insurance for the accident.

The two men were taken to North Coventry Justice of the Peace Ralph W. Ralston by Chief Daniel W. Guldin. The Rev. Story declined to press any charge since insurance covered the accident.

Guldin could not supply the driver's name early this morning because his records were not available.

The ruling noted that the original permit to the water company had already spent $188,000 on the project. In a second resolution the board specifically approved construction of the impounding dam at Green appeal by the Norristown Water company, Perkiomen Valley Frederick townships.

The company estimated at additional hearings in October, November and December that the proposed dam would flood 1400 acres of land.

THE PERKIOMEN creek is a tributary of the Schuylkill river. At the hearings company representatives told the board that "on a year-round basis there is no time when the condition of the Perkiomen will not be improved" by the Green Lane dam.

The company said that if it is not allowed to go ahead with its plans "there may come a time when we will be unable to meet the water demands of this valley."

The petitioners for reopening of the case took the position that the project would "substantially and adversely affect

White House Plans TV News Session

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP) — The White House said today consideration is still being given to telecasting a presidential news conference. Press Secretary James C. time I've been chairman, this commission has tried to get the top men, both physically and mentally, for the police vacancies."

"The morale of the police force is tremendously low right now," he said.

"IT'S NOT going to get any better by hiring punks for the job. I gested how we could probably think only the highest men should be taken on."

The morale situation of the police department was graphically described by one policeman in a Mercury story today who said, "The morale of the Pottstown police department is lower than a snake's belly."

As for the case of Edward Koslowski, 114 South Franklin street, one of the three men who passed the tests, Myers said,

"This man is only two months over 35 years of age. I gave him the tests because we don't have any definite ruling about age and secondly, it was a state of emergency. Strange had said that it was a state of emergency. He had two vacancies to fill. So I assumed he wanted the vacancies filled as soon as possible."

"AT ONE TIME I brought in a list of recommendations that suggested how we could probably better grade the men who were taking exams for the police department," Myers said, emphatically. "I also was the first to recommend a revolving work shift."

"I gave that list of recommendations to Strange. Do you know where that list ended up? In the wastebasket! I don't believe any member of the committee ever saw it."

"So I don't want them taking potshots at me. Any information they want they can get if they ask for it. I don't think it's the kind of

Wife to Face Murder Rap As Male Dies From Stab

UNIONTOWN, April 8 (AP) — Anthony Vertosic, 41, of nearby Masontown, died today of a stab wound his wife is accused of inflicting.

Dist. Atty. Fred Brothers said the 12-year-old woman, free on $1500 bond on a charge of felonious assault, will be charged with murder at a hearing tomorrow.

Boyertown Woman's Club to Conduct 'Division Day' in Community Center

"Division Day" will be conducted out of the bakery which will be served by the Woman's club of Boyertown to club members.

At 2:45 p. m. the regular monthly business meeting and election of officers will be conducted.

The literature department will introduce Mrs. J. W. Books, immediate past president of the Berks county Federation, who will give a review of the book, "Daughter of Confusion" by Wong Su Ling and Earl Herbert Cressy. She will also talk on drama.

Health Board Hears 47 Cases Reported

The Boyertown board of Health heard Health Officer Harry L. Gilbert report 47 cases of communicable diseases at a meeting last night.

This is the greatest number of cases reported by Gilbert during any period in his almost three years in office. The period covers from March 12 to April 8. There were four cases of communicable diseases in the same period the past year.

The health officer in his report listed 12 cases of mumps, 28 cases of measles and seven cases of German measles.

The number of cases reported for the same period were mumps, 12; measles, eight; and German measles, three.

The meeting held at the home of Daniel A. Rohrbach, 516 East Fourth street, secretary and treasurer, was conducted by Dr. John A. Waring, president of the board.

Keystone Fire Auxiliary To Hold Meeting Tonight

The regular meeting of the Keystone Fire company Ladies' auxiliary, Boyertown, will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the company lodge hall.

The social committee is comprised of Mrs. Bertha Smith, Mrs. Jennie Yoder and Mrs. Annie Dierolf.

Boyertown Lions Cancel Meeting to Attend Rally

The regular meeting of the Boyertown Lions club, scheduled for tonight, has been canceled so as to permit members to attend the regional rally to be held tonight at 7 o'clock at the Goodwill Fire company, Hyde Park, Reading.

All members of the club, planning to attend the rally, are requested to meet at the Boyertown inn no later than 6 p. m., as sufficient transportation is available to transport members to the rally.

Two Participating Groups Stage Play Rehearsals

Play rehearsals for "Accidentally Yours", being sponsored jointly by the Boyertown Junior Woman's club and the Boyertown Junior Chamber of Commerce, are progressing quite successfully according to Gloria Eschbach and H. Douglas Rose, co-chairmen of the event.

The play will be presented on Friday, April 24 at 8:30 p. m. in the Boyertown High school auditorium.

"Accidentally Yours" is a fast moving, three-act comedy, to be enjoyed by young and old.

Tickets for the event are now on sale from any member of either of the sponsoring organizations.

SINGER TO GIVE Veteran Groups Plan TOWN CONCERT IN HIGH SCHOOL

Celebrity Group to Hear Baritone in Program April 26

Marshall Heinbaugh, baritone, who will make his concert debut in the Boyertown High school auditorium on Sunday afternoon, April 26, is a member of what he terms a "singing family." While not professionals, both of his parents were musical.

Heinbaugh has four singing brothers, also non-professionals.

MARSHALL HEINBAUGH

He had originally sought a career in the medical profession but decided to try for a scholarship at Curtis Institute. He was accepted by the opera and concert baritone, Richard Bonelli, as a pupil.

Following a tour of duty in the Army, he returned to the institute, where he received his bachelor of music degree.

His concert here is sponsored by the Boyertown Area Celebrity Concert association of which Gerald R. Grabert, instrumental music supervisor of the Boyertown School district, is president.

Only members of the association will be admitted to the concert as no tickets will be sold at the door.

Grangers Discuss Summer Gardens

Twenty-seven members of New Hanover Community Grange discussed the planting of a Summer vegetable garden.

Lizzie Nester was speaker on the topic, "The Garden." She went over her plans to plant a vegetable garden including peas, onions, radishes and lima beans.

A poll of the men at the meeting showed that beans and potatoes were their favorite vegetables.

The group played a vegetable guessing game. A person would have a vegetable in mind and then give hints as to what it was. Oh! Richard Sholz sang a solo and Mrs. Dorothy Moyer read a story. Willis Hetrick, master, presided.

Surprise Luncheon Planned by Auxiliary

The monthly meeting of the Gilbertsville Fire company Ladies' auxiliary will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the fire hall.

The social committee, consisting of Helen Gerhart and Grace Gerhart, is planning a surprise luncheon. Margaret Moyer and Hilda O'Connell are the committee in charge of providing entertainment.

Definite plans have been formulated for a fashion show to be held in the Keystone Fire company Rainbow Room, Boyertown, on Thursday, May 7. Fashions will be modeled for both children and adults.

All members and children desiring to model, are requested to attend tonight's meeting.

President Meets Council, Leaves for Golf Game

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—President Eisenhower met for three hours today with his National Security council.

There was no announcement as to the subjects discussed, but presumably the Korean situation came in for some attention. The council is the top defense agency.

Immediately after the meeting, the President left for a game of golf at the Burning Tree Country club in nearby Maryland.

Norco Grange Will Install 9 Members in New Ranks

North Coventry Grange will install nine members to the third and fourth degree at tonight's meeting in the Grange hall.

School Men to Back 'Courageous' Taxes

HARRISBURG, April 8 (AP)—The Pennsylvania State Education Association said today it will support a "courageous approach" to new taxes.

When asked what stand the association is taking on a proposed sales tax, Harvey L. Gayman, executive secretary, said:

"A courageous approach to new taxes, as may be necessary to carry forward our program of education and social service in the Commonwealth, will have a hearty approval and support."

Gayman cited a resolution which was passed by the association at its convention the past December.

Reds Merge Navy Paper With Army's 'Red Star'

MOSCOW, April 8 (AP)—The Soviet Navy newspaper Red Fleet has discontinued publication. It has been merged with the former Army newspaper Red Star, which now covers both Naval and Army affairs.

The move followed the reorganization of departments under Premier Georgi Malenkov in which navy and war ministries were combined to form the new ministry of defense.

East Vincent Church Adds 3 Members

RIDGE ROAD—Lila McDonald, del., Mark Birdsall, Christine Birdsall, John Di Piero, Edward Funk, Robert F. Brillhart, pastor, officiating.
Two members were received by Judy O'Neill, Linda Buzzard and confirmation and one by letter of Ralph Hill.
The church was filled with worshippers when the Rev. Brillhart preached his Easter sermon on the subject, "Beyond the Dark." During the service Mrs. Wayne G. Hoffman, organist, rendered as preludes "Holy City," Adams, and "Alleluia," Mozart. The junior choir sang "Christ Arose" and the senior choir, "God So Loved the World." Many Jane Moyer is director of both groups.
The regular morning service was preceded by Holy Communion at 9 o'clock, when Paul D. Barton Jr., was organist. A previous Communion service was held Wednesday night at the church, and the Women's guild sponsored a quiet hour Friday night.
THE CHILDREN of the Sunday school presented a program. Furman H. Gyger Jr., assistant superintendent, announced the numbers. The program was as follows: "Prelude," by Eleanor Detweiler; "Call to Worship," Shirley Funk; Scripture reading, Betty Jayne Hughes; a reading, "What Does It Mean?" Mary Ann Roberts; instrumental duet, John and Richard Funk; and scripture readings by children of the Primary department; Mark Graham, Beverly Buzzard, Susan Gyger, Merrie Powell, Indian; and William Ralston, Spring City.
Mrs. Galea Leiminger spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scheib, "Sunny Side Farm."
MR. AND MRS. JOHN JONES, Lillian Major and Jess Davis, Port Carbon; and Mrs. Elizabeth Combs, Spring Lake, N. J., were weekend guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas E. Anderman, of the Bethel Methodist parsonage, Bethel road.
Bethel Methodist church, Easter morning, was decorated with Easter flowers. The choir offered two anthems, "Awake, Thou That Sleepest," by Morrison and, "King of Kings," a quartet including Robert Famous, Mrs. Ethel Famous, Mrs. Howard Montgomery and Joseph Kern, presented a number, "Easter Dawn."
Holy Week communion was observed at the East Vincent Evangelical Reformed church Wednesday night, with the Rev. Robert F. Brillhart, pastor, officiating. He spoke on the subject of the church was decorated with potted and cut flowers.
MR. AND MRS. Harry M. Titus Jr., 710 Arch street, Spring City, will entertain members of the Beacon society, East Vincent Evangelical Reformed church, at their home Friday night.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Emmell, Ridge road, entertained guests at a turkey dinner. Those present were: Mrs. Emmell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tucker and William Tucker, Center Square; Madeline Hellman, Norristown; Mr. and Mrs. John Kipchok, William and Rosanne Kipchok, Conshohocken.

Reds Offer to Exchange 100 for 500 Prisoners Per Day

MUNSAN, Thursday, April 9 (AP)—The Communists today offered to return only 100 disabled war captives a day to the Allies but said they would accept in exchange 500 prisoners daily from UN command camps.

The Red offer was made at this morning's meeting of Communist and Allied liaison teams at Panmunjom.

The Reds have offered a total of only 100 disabled Allies from their prison camps in exchange for 500 sick and wounded Communists the UN command is willing to give up.

Probably less than 125 of the 600 prisoners would be Americans.

UNDER THE COMMUNIST proposal, their camps and country would be cleared in a span of six days of all the sick and wounded Allies they say they hold.

Allied officers asked for and got a recess to discuss the Red plan.

The Allied liaison team returned to the Panmunjom conference hut today seeking a higher return of prisoners from the Reds.

The Allied spokesman yesterday called the number set by the Communists for exchange "incredibly small" and asked them to adopt a more liberal classification of sick and wounded.

THE RED OFFER to return 100 prisoners daily indicated they are not physically equipped to transfer them any faster.

Rear Admiral John C. Daniel, chief of the UN command group, hinted as much yesterday when he said the Reds were moving as fast as their staff work would permit.

After the Red proposal, Daniel asked for a 30 minute recess.

No date has been set yet for the actual exchange.

The Allies hoped to begin the exchange within ten days.

The Communist proposal had several other points.

One would increase the number of security guards at Panmunjom during the actual exchange period. These are limited now to 15.

(A Peiping radio broadcast heard in Tokyo said the Reds sought an increase to 30.)

Another amendment would remove the Allied restriction on the size of Red convoys moving prisoners to the Panmunjom area. The Allies had set ten trucks as the maximum in a convoy.

THE REDS ALSO sought to delete an Allied proposal for advance notification of emergency stopover locations for the convoys.

The total number to be traded was disclosed by the Reds and the UN command Wednesday during talks lasting 66 minutes. No names were listed but both liaison groups pushed steadily toward full agreement.

Rear Admiral Daniel termed the total number of 450 South Koreans and 150 Americans, British, French and other ailing captives to be returned "incredibly small."

Group Okays Rent Control Extension

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP)—The Senate Banking committee voted today to extend all Federal rent controls through Sept. 30 and give President Eisenhower power to freeze prices, wages and rents for 90 days in a war crisis.

Its action on rent controls, approving the five-month extension requested by the President in non-critical areas, came as a surprise.

Several members of the committee indicated previously that rent ceilings in non-critical areas of the country would be allowed to die on the scheduled date of April 30. These controls cover about 4,500,000 housing units in 1400 cities.

A non-critical area is one in which housing shortages have not been created by new defense plants and an influx of workers.

TODAY'S VOTING completed committee action on a general economic controls measure drawn up to replace the expiring Defense Production act. It now goes to the full Senate for debate. The House Banking committee has not reported out a bill yet.

Congress must act by the end of the month if rent controls are to be extended. There is some doubt that the bill will get through in time.

Senators Uncover Red Tape Mountain Delaying Ammunition to Korean Front

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP) Senators investigating ammunition shortages in Korea turned up evidence today of mountainous red tape in the Pentagon—red tape which Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) called "the most colossal and terrible thing I've ever known."

Former Defense Secretary Robert A. Lovett told a Senate Armed Forces subcommittee ammunition shortages in Korea have been critical at times and the Army as a whole is responsible for a "sorry showing."

Neither Lovett nor W. J. McNeil, a holdover from the Truman Administration as assistant secretary and financial officer for the Defense department, would point a finger of blame at any one individual or group.

Byrd brought out by questioning McNeil that a single order for ammunition passes through 42 separate agencies and must be cleared by more than 200 persons before it even becomes a contract. The papers travel an estimated 10,000 miles over a nine-month period.

McNEIL SAID until the subcommittee investigation started, actual deliveries of ammunition to Korea were delayed for 15 months after contracts were let. Red and angry, Byrd stormed that this was folly and was "incomprehensible."

"Everybody admits it's gross inefficiency," he declared, "but nobody is responsible."

Lovett said the blame must be assigned "to the Army as a whole." McNeil blamed "the system." They agreed that lack of funds was not an important factor.

The Senator then offered a resolution that the subcommittee demand from the Pentagon the names and positions of persons, past or present, who have handled ammunition contracts.

SUBWAY TRAINS CRASH TOGETHER IN LONDON TUBE

Six Persons Found Dead By Rescue Crews Combining Debris

LONDON Thursday, April 9 (AP)—Two subway trains, packed with 1200 homeward bound commuters during the rush hour, crashed in a dark East London underground tube last night. Six persons were known dead as rescuers dug into the early morning hours for others feared trapped in the wreckage.

The London transport system listed the six known dead early today but said "we aren't sure how many are buried—or whether they are alive." Unofficial estimates said as many as 25 may have been killed. Transport officials thought this figure might prove to be high.

A policeman at the entrance to the dark, narrow tunnel said he understood all but one coach had been cleared and that only six persons were in it. Two of these were children who, rescue workers said, could be heard chattering in the dark and were apparently unhurt.

Two men pinned in the tangled wreckage were reported still alive five hours after the crash. Their legs were badly crushed.

WORKING BY the light of hand flares, a doctor burrowed his way into the wrecked coach to give a hypodermic to one of the men to ease his pain while attempts were made to free him.

Three of the injured, one a motorman of one of the wrecked trains, were reported in critical condition. Scores among passengers on the two trains were treated for cuts, bruises and other minor injuries.

"In the confusion we don't know just how bad the toll is yet," a transport spokesman said. "But the early unofficial estimates of 25 dead appear high."

Rescue workers used acetylene torches to cut through the twisted steel wreckage piled up in the dark.

The packed commuter train, bound for Epping, a residential suburb 20 miles outside London, plowed into the other train running along the same Central line to Hainault as they swung around a bend into the tunnel near Stratford station.

The London transport system said motorman J. S. Besley of the Epping train, who earlier had been listed as killed, was critically injured.

Doctors operated yesterday and found half of a wedding ring that had been worn by George Hawkins of Cramit, Ill., who was killed in the explosion.

House Votes to Pare Sales Tax Rates From 2 to 1 Percent

HARRISBURG, April 8 (AP)—The House voted tonight to reduce the rate of a proposed sales tax from 2 to 1 percent after beating down a Democratic motion to postpone a final vote indefinitely.

Ending a day of backstage maneuvering in closed conferences, the Republican majority then advanced the controversial measure for a vote, possibly tomorrow.

But the amendment offered by the House Republican leadership failed to dent the open opposition of seven Republican members to the sales tax.

Their votes, together with the 98-member Democratic minority already on record against a sales levy, are enough to defeat the tax bill if they stand by their position.

DESPITE THE precarious position of GOP chieftains, Representative Albert W. Johnson, Republican floor leader, insisted the revised sales tax will be called up for a final vote tomorrow.

The Senate, whose Republican members refused to go along with a sales impost at the 2 percent rate, wound up its business and adjourned until Monday.

Johnson said the House Republican caucus will be called into session tomorrow for a show of hands among its 109 members. The group met in two separate sessions during the day but could reach no decision except to approve a group of amendments.

Old Chieftain Gets Fast Ride to New Resting Place, South Dakotans Run Sitting Bull's Bones From North

MOBRIDGE, S. D., April 8 (AP)—Sixty-three years after the famed Indian leader's death, the bones of Sitting Bull got a fast ride across the State lines today from an old to a new burial ground.

North Dakota, within whose borders the medicine man's body had lain for years in an often-neglected grave, was quick to cry "foul," and threaten legal action.

But a group of South Dakotans, who said they acted on behalf of Sitting Bull's descendants in removing the remains without official North Dakota sanction, said South Dakota would honor the Indian's resting place as North Dakota had failed to.

After a month of formal applications got nowhere, a dozen South Dakotans armed with shovels dug up the remains early Wednesday from a grave at Ft. Yates, in South Central North Dakota, headquarters of the Standing Rock Sioux Indian reservation. The reservation straddles the North Dakota-South Dakota border.

SWIFTLY THEY took the bones,

Paint Brush Trims Lawn

Chinese Red Troops Hit Carson Hill

SEOUL, Thursday, April 9 (AP)—Fighting raged on the slopes of Carson hill in the predawn darkness today as Chinese troops hit the Western front outpost in a renewal of the bloody-battling of two weeks ago.

About 175 Reds attacked at 3:48 a. m., a frontline division officer said.

Marines on Carson poured rifle, machine gun, mortar and artillery fire into the Reds. The officer said the Leathernecks halted the assault before the Chinese reached the Carson's outer defenses. But he said the Chinese at 9 a. m. still were on the nearby Finger ridges.

Carson was the only one of the three Nevada hills which the Reds failed to take in a March 26 attack. Reno still is held by the Reds and the Allies won back Vegas only after three days of bloody fighting.

SOUTH KOREANS recaptured a hotly contested Central front outpost Wednesday night and US Marines and Belgians hurled back two company-sized assaults elsewhere on the front.

In the air, US Thunderjets destroyed 13 buildings and touched off two secondary blasts in a Red supply area in Western Korea, the Fifth air force reported.

Sabre jets patrolled high over Northwest Korea but Communist jets did not come up and fight.

Marine Corsairs bombed a Red radio station southwest of Pyongyang while other Allied fighter-bombers hammered front line positions and transport arteries.

The battle at 2000-foot high outpost "Texas"—named by Allied correspondents—climaxed four days of steady fighting between the Chinese and infantrymen of the South Korean Third division on the Central front.

The Chinese seized the height Sunday and in the next two days possession of the outpost changed hands four times.

Easter Nuptial Ceremony in Boyertown Unites in Marriage Joanne Marie Rossi and David Henry Schaeffer

Easter nuptials united in marriage Joanne Marie Rossi and David Henry Schaeffer, both of Boyertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rossi, 337 Pine street, Allentown, are the parents of the bride. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Schaeffer, 26 Fairview street, Boyertown.

Easter lilies and two vases of Lord's Prayer. To walk down the white carpeted aisle on the arm of her father, the bride chose a gown of lace, tulle and satin, in traditional white.

Before 265 guests, the Rev. David F. Longacre, pastor, read the service, while Jean Franz, played the organ.

Soloist Joseph Hoover sang "Because," "Ave Maria" and "The Ruffled from the waist with lace on tulle over bouffant satin, the bride's skirt extended to a four-foot train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion net fell from a colonial crown and she wore in her white satin slippers, a penny for luck.

Atop her white prayerbook, the bride carried two white orchids.

Maid of honor was Louise Reisinger, 112 North Ninth street, Allentown.

She was attired in a colonial gown of powderblue, but with a sweetheart neckline beneath a jacket with a pointed collar.

Her picture hat was of matching blue and she carried a nosegay with a purple orchid centered amid dwarf roses.

Bridesmaids were Barbara Kindt, Patricia Mink and Dolores Strauss, all of Allentown.

Fashioned after the honor attendant's gown, their frocks were colored yellow, pink and orchid and each wore a picture hat and carried nosegays of orchids and roses.

Russell H. Miller, Boyertown was best man.

Ushers were Joseph Kish, Philadelphia; Richard Rhoades, Boyertown, and James Carrington, Boyertown.

Joanne Schreiner, Fulton was flower girl.

Her blue frock was a miniature replica of the bridesmaid's gown and she carried white sweetpeas surrounded by dwarf roses.

Sentiment governed the selection of the reception site — the American Legion hall in Boyertown.

Bride and groom met at a Legion Hallway parade for which she was a majorette and he marched in the drum and bugle corps.

White and pink crepe paper decorated the hall and three wedding bells were suspended from the ceiling.

Easter Nuptial Ceremony Unites Bovertown Couple

For her stint in the receiving line, the bride's mother chose a glazed crepe linen suit of pink, worn with black accessories.

Gray was the color of the groom's mother's silk gown, and she chose bag, hat, gloves and shoes of black.

White orchids were pinned to the shoulders of both mothers.

The couple will be at home to friends at 35 Fairview street, Bovertown.

After graduating from Bovertown High school and groom attended West Chester State Teachers college and received his degree from Temple University.

PHS GOLFERS TRIM WILSON IN 1ST MATCH

Depth paid off for Pottstown High's golf team yesterday afternoon in its maiden competitive voyage around the Brookside Country club course.

With all five players between 89 and 94, the Trojans swept past Wilson High, 13-2, in the season's opener for the two teams.

Jack Bechtel carried out the duties of No. 1 man by touring the 18 holes in 89, and winning his match, 2-1. Three wacks out-of-bounds left the Trojan leader one down after nine holes against Wilson's top boy, Gene Shurr.

Jack settled down after his 47 in the leadoff nine, and came on strong with a 42 to take the back half, four up.

Coach Bill McCabe used Paul Stofko in the No. 2 post, and the Trojan Senior responded with a 2-1 victory. Stofko blistered the damp turf with a 45 opening nine while his opponent Earl Ressler was in constant trouble.

WITH A FIVE UP LEAD at the turn, Stofko slipped to a 49 and dropped the second nine, one down. His 94-stroke total gave him an other point over Ressler.

The bottom half of McCabe's lineup shutout Wilson's 3-4-5 combination.

Buffy Shoenley bracketed a pair of 47s for a 94 to defeat Dick Krick, 3-0, in the battle of No. 3 men.

Also winning by a shutout was Wally Van Dyke, who probably gave the best showing on the team. Wilson's Fred Fox could not match Van Dyke's 48 1/2 for a neat 91, second best among the Trojan scores.

Lenny Levin was McCabe's last minute choice for the only vacant job. Levin established himself as a regular by coming home with a 42 after scrambling for a 50 on the first nine. His tab of 92 gave Pottstown too much strength for the young and inexperienced Wilson team.

IN PRACTICE ROUNDS, John Morrell, Bob Drumheller and Mary Joan Zarick all threatened 50 for nine holes, and with some improvement any one of them could break into the starting five.

Bill Garrow had a 49, and although a Senior, may win his way into the lineup.

Destruction Derby Returns to Sanatoga

The Sanatoga Speedway racing fans like to hear the crunch of metal on metal and Promoter George Marshman always aims to please.

After three weeks of expert driving but few crashes, the Destruction Derby has been re-installed into next Sunday's program. It will be the first DD of the season plus the usual full card of seven other events.

The rules of stock car racing go out the window and so do most of the machines before it is over—when the Derby dare-devils move into action. Like the Roman gladiators, the last one standing is declared the winner.

This year, the destructionists will work in pairs. Two cars will form a team each riding shotgun on the other at all times. Rubber, tin and flesh will fly next Sunday at Sanatoga.

Another lineup of All-Stars Racing association drivers have registered for the fourth meet of the season. Harry Moore is on the spot this week as he goes after his second straight feature win.

NEW GAME PROTECTOR INTRODUCED AT SHOW

The new game protector for Chester county was introduced last night as the Northern Chester County Sportsmen's club completed its two-night annual show.

Edward J. Fasching, of Allentown, has replaced Ralph L. Shank, the former county protector who has been transferred to Schuylkill county in a similar capacity.

Shank was present to introduce his successor to a big portion of the 600 spectators who attended last night's show at the Norco elementary auditorium.

Don Miller, conservation education assistant of the State Game Commission, presented a wildlife film that was shown in the main auditorium.

SPARE ROOM—Earl Rodgers won the high jump event with a leap of five feet, three inches, to give Pottstown High its first win in the 60½ to 47½ victory over Shillington yesterday afternoon. In a tie for second place, one inch lower was Pottstown's George Henderson.

Fillman Win 3 Events

Pottstown Track Squad Defeats Shillington

Walt Fillman is making a late start in high school sports, but yesterday he made three fast finishes to pace Pottstown High to its first track victory.

The Trojans topped Shillington High, 60½ to 47½ at Franklin field in the first meet of the season for both squads. Including Fillman's three firsts, Pottstown won seven of the 12 events.

Fillman, a 16-year-old Senior, captured the 100 and 220-yard dashes, and the 120-yard low hurdles. This is his first try at varsity competition but he showed all the form of a veteran.

Another newcomer to Coach Heeb Meyers' track team, Bob Zeigler, came through in fine Sophomore style with a narrow win in the half-mile run.

The Trojans split in the field events with Ron Downie taking the shotput, Earl Rodgers winning the high jump, and Dick Fine first in the broad jump.

SOPHOMORE DAVE GILLIS was the second best point winner although he failed to win a blue ribbon. He was runnerup to Fillman in both of the dashes, and placed behind Fine in the broad jump.

Fillman opened the running events with a 10.6 time in the 100. He was about four yards ahead of Gillis on the slow track.

The low hurdle event was run in two heats. Fillman winning the first in 15.1. Shillington's Bruce Daniels won the second beat, one tenth of a second slower than Fillman's time.

It was only the second time Walt ran the event, and although he had poor form over the hurdles, his speed pulled him to a three-yard win against teammate Lloyd Hughes and Lee Walton of Shillington who ran a dead heat tie for third.

In the final running event of the afternoon, Fillman raced to a 2:14 timing in the 220 to win the first heat. Gillis took the second heat in 2:48 and placed second.

ZEIGLER'S WIN in the 880 required plenty of stamina and some good running savvy. Shillington's long Paul Bollman started the race as if he was sprinting for the wire. His long, smooth strides moved him out in front by 20 yards and he completed the first lap in just over a minute.

He was not capable of holding that pace and as the second lap started, Zeigler began closing in. He passed Bollman on the last turn and held a steady pace down the stretch. Bollman staggered in for second about four yards back. Zeigler's time was 2:14.7.

The mile run was exciting but Ken Shaner was not quite able to duplicate Zeigler's feat. Shaner trailed the Speedboys' Bill Ramsey for a half mile, but in the third quarter, after several futile attempts he passed his visiting foe.

Ramsey regained the lead during the final quarter mile and

IF THE SUN SHINES

Second Attempt to Start League Planned by Perk Teams

Should the sun lend his glowing countenance to the skies today and tomorrow, this could develop into a tough two days for Perkiomen-Schuylkill baseball league clubs with low pitching quotas.

All eight teams play today in what will be the circuit's first full day of activity since Monday's opening day's card was flooded out. To boot, Schwenksville, Spring City, Upper Perk and West Pottsgrove are all booked for encores tomorrow in the loop, while Boyertown tackles non-league Birdsboro in its third game in as many days.

The Bears came from behind to drub Collegeville, 8-3, yesterday in the lone tilt played so far in the league. Today, the Bears are scheduled to oppose Spring City on the B-town field.

Other tilts listed for today are Collegeville at Schwenksville, Royersford at Upper Perk and West Pottsgrove at North Coventry.

It's likely that Bear mentor Warren Fry will loose fast-firing Dick Ludy on the Pirates today after going along with Gerry Grim in yesterday's inaugural at Collegeville. Ludy, one of the circuit's outstanding twirlers the past year, will probably be opposed by young Ken Finkbner, the SC right-hander who stopped Upper Merion, 11-4, a week ago for his club's lone victory of the year.

COLLEGEVILLE, now at the bottom of the standings with an 0-1 mark, threw Gerry Hefelfinger, its No. 2 hurler, to the Boyertown wolves yesterday, and will probably lead with its ace, Bill Korznik, against the hard-hitting Bluebirds today.

Rod Kindig, a cagy and deceptively rapid chucker for his low-slung appearance, is Mike Hader's mound choice.

Bill Rodgers and Charley Rauch look like the opening duo for Royersford and Upper Perk, respectively, in their meeting that will go a long way in rating just how much the defending champs have fallen off from their '51 capabilities.

Upper Perk, ranked with Boyertown as the circuit's top pre-season bet, has one win logged already this year and perennially presents a solid-sticking array.

Soph left-hander Al Dori gets the nod to oppose North Coventry today as Bill Keays readies infielder-pitcher Dick Geisler for the Perkies tomorrow. Strong-armed Rod McMullen is slated to face the Falcons, who could create a stir in the flag chase this year with the benefit of a good start.

ELKS TO ENTER CIL TEAM

The defending titlists of the City Industrial League, Montgomery Elks, will be in the loop again this year, Curly Ricketts announced yesterday.

Ricketts will manage the team in place of Bill Barber, last year's leader, who is now a physical director in a York youth center.

The new pilot said there are several vacancies to fill from last year's squad that lost only one game in league play and in the playoffs.

Dick Ricketts and LeRoy Hallman will not return from college until June, and Dave Ricketts won't be available until after Pottstown High leaves out. Bobby Manger last year's third baseman is in the Army.

Trojan Diamond Team Starts Ches-Mont League Action This Afternoon at Franklin Field Against Phoenixville

Phoenixville will lean its shoulder against the towering column of victories piled high by Pottstown High this afternoon at Franklin field.

Twenty-eight times over the past three years the Trojans have walked off the field without losing a game. Today at 3:30 o'clock, Ches-Mont league action is inaugurated with the Phantoms helping to lay the corner stone.

Each team has played one game. Second call if anything should happen. Pottstown defeated Spring City, 11-0, behind the three-hit pitching of Mike Kriezky. Phoenix tied Upper Merion, 4-4, a team that was upended by Spring City, 11-4, the day after the Pirates were bombed at Franklin field.

Coach Ed Good has made one change in his starting lineup since the SC tilt. Bill Drauschak will patrol right field in place of Merrill Krammer. It's not so much a case of Krammer being demoted as it is making room for the hustling, hitting Drauschak.

Good figures Drauschak can get on base, either by hitting or working his way for a walk and has inserted him in the leadoff spot.

Ron Cheney, shortstop, will retain his No. 2 slot in the batting order followed by Merrill Shurey, third baseman.

Early Rush Carries

NEW YORK, April 8 (AP)—An 18-point first period scoring spree by big George Mikan carried the Minneapolis Lakers over a rough fourth quarter tonight as they defeated the New York Knickerbockers, 11-69, and took a lead of three games to one in the National Basketball association's best of seven final playoff series.

Mike will go after his second shutout and should be even more effective than he was against the Pirates on that cold, windy day.

Behind Kriezky, No. 5 in the lineup, will be Sophomore Josh Sovo, who also clubbed out three hits in the opener. He will start at first base.

Center fielder Howie Bedell has been dropped to No. 7 after a short term in the leadoff position. Bill Kerr, starting left fielder and No. 3 hurler - the Trojans best left on base, either by hitting or working his way for a walk and has inserted him in the leadoff spot.

Joe Geiger will probably be starting pitcher for the Phantoms. He is also their best hitter.

Gallardo Decisions Bassett

WASHINGTON, April 8 (AP) — Dave Gallardo 2 3 to 1 underdog, tonight slashed his way to a 10-round unanimous decision over Percy Bassett, the interim featherweight champion. The title was not at stake. Gallardo weighed 129½; Bassett, 129½.

Gallardo, a 25-year-old Mexican from Los Angeles, has been undefeated since 1931. But in beating Bassett, the hard-punching Philadelphia Negro scored a stunning upset.

There were no knockdowns in the fight. The two boxers spent most of the 10 rounds in one corner or another chopping away at one another with short rights and lefts to the head and body.

In the second round Gallardo opened a cut over Bassett's right eye. He worked on Bassett's cut the rest of the way and smacked his and Bassett's trunks with blood.

Boxing in the District of Columbia is scored on a point system. Referee Harry Volkman managed to pull ahead during the last 100 yards. He was clocked in 5:12 just a few steps ahead of Shaver.

Wayne Hughes, Pottstown's top man in the 140, stumbled on the first turn and dropped out of contention early. Bill Holster, of Shillington, threatened by Hughes when the Trojan went down, and the Speedboy stayed in front the rest of the way.

Carl Burns had to strain to gain third place in the quarter mile, as Holster won the event in 57.5.

Earl Rodgers gave Pottstown its first win by leaping five feet, three inches in the high jump. His buddy and practice competitor, George Henderson cleared 5-2 to tie for second with the visitors' Brad Breneman.

While he was high jumping, Breneman also competed in the pole vault and won with the top flur of nine feet, eight inches. Clark Burns of Pottstown, and the losers' Bruce Daniels were unable to match Breneman's jump, but both made 9-6 to deadlock second place.

Dick Fine was a surprise winner in the broad jump as Pottstown swept its only event. Fine sailed 19 feet, two and three-quarters inches to place ahead of Gillis and Carl Burns.

DOWNIE WAS the top point getter for the Meyersmen in the weight events. His loss of 41 feet, two and three quarter inches in the shotput was three inches better than Bob Sutton's.

Bill Tucker closed the meet with a Shillington win in the discus. He spun the plate 115 feet, 11 inches, a throw that beat Downie's best by three feet, 10 inches.

The only event in which Pottstown failed to place was the javelin. Bernie Curilla hurled the spear 136 feet, 5 inches for the best of three Shillington point winners.

SUMMARY

100: Pottstown (P), Gillis (P), Delong (S), 10.5.

440: Holster (S), White (S), Carl Burns (P).

500: Burns (S), Shaver (P), Hartman (P), 5:12.

120 low hurdles: Pottstown (P), Daniels (S), Hughes (P) and Walton (S) tie for third, 30.4.

800: Zeiler (P), Bolmer (S), Warner (S), 2:14.

200: Pottstown (P), Gillis (P), Holster (S), 2:14.

High jump: Rodgers (P), Henderson (P) and Breneman (S) tie for second, 5 ft. 2 inches.

Pole Vault: Breneman (S), Daniels (S) and Burns (P) tie for second, 9 ft. 8 inches.

Shot Put: Downie (P), Sutton (P), Hill (S), 41 ft. 2 1/4 inches.

Gilbertsville Kegler 'King for a Night'

Warren "Red" Knode, Gilbertsville, returned home yesterday from the American Bowling Congress in Chicago, Ill., with a raft of prizes he won for becoming "king for a night" by outbowling 239 other men during an ABC session.

Officials of the $500,000 ABC, tournament put him on a throne, took his picture and presented him with prizes including a bag of 25 silver dollars, a trophy, bowling shirt and new bowling bag.

"Everybody was my friend, from all over the world," the 51-year-old Knode reported.

Bowling with the Friendship Hook and Ladder company team of Boyertown—the Hookies—Knode became king by rolling a 255 game. His score was the highest in a single game by the 240 bowlers that were on the alleys with him, during an ABC session Monday night, March 30.

Every high-game bowler of such a squad becomes king until the next 240-man squad takes to the alleys.

KNODE SAID officials and bowlers seemed specially pleased to have an unknown bowler achieve such sudden prominence.

His 255 was part of his three-game total of 580. He also rolled 463 in doubles with Daniel Bush, of the Hookies, and had a 575 total in three single games.

Other Hookies who competed in the ABC were Charles Ritter, Walter Meek, Finley Gable and Robert Smith.

Knode may be unknown in Chicago, but he's well-known in the Pottstown area. In the 1930's, he won a Mercury-sponsored contest as the area's most popular volunteer fireman. The past November, he retired after 35½ years of beating the bass drum for Charles B. Yergler Post 471, American Legion, Boyertown.

Don Nichols, bidding for an outfield spot with the Chicago White Sox, stole 84 bases for Memphis last season to break the old Southern Association record.

Stowe's Sam DiGiosia Stars on Army Basketball Team

Stowe's Sam DiGiosia hasn't some votes for the most valuable '52 cage season for O'Dell's, leading the circuit in points in its early stages.

The same Area Command defeated the Engineers in the Com Z tourney, beating Co. A, 73-44, after DiGiosia had sparked his quint to two successive wins. He tallied 19 points as the Engineers romped by the 57th Field Hospital, 57-41, and played an important role in their 26-24 nod over the 433rd Signal Service.

CO. A was finally eliminated from the double elimination tourney in the losers' round final by the 78th Quartermaster Depot, 71-55. The tourney ran March 10-21.

Earlier, in February, Sam pocketed 22 counters in pacing Co. A to a 51-45 victory over neighboring Co. B for the crown of the 982nd.

DiGiosia, a Vine street resident, was inducted into the Army about a year ago after playing several seasons in the City Baseball and City Basketball leagues — coming along as an able scorer in the 1951-52 season.

places on the 10-man Sunday School circuit 1953 All-Star first two teams, director Tom Weber announced last night.

Grace, the two time seasonal and playoff champ, nabbed two first team spots and two second line positions as did Transfiguration, which ended second in both the regular season and playoff chases.

Grace's Bob Mayberry and Don Grim, Transfiguration's Hal Bauer and Russ Myers and Cal Swavely of Enimamuel composed the all-circuit first team.

On the second team were Carl Missimer and Paul Salitzer from the champs, Bill Jones and Squeaks.

Will the gasoline you're buying help keep your car from STALLING?

It may surprise you, as it has many motorists, to know that one of the commonest causes of stalling in the first few minutes of driving can be prevented by the right gasoline. In damp, cool weather (30° to 55°) the gasoline sprayed into your carburetor acts as a refrigerant. It freezes the moisture in the air into tiny particles of frosty ice. These ice particles clog the carburetor openings and cause stalling. This cannot be corrected by mechanical repairs. It can be corrected with Esso Extra Gasoline, which contains an added ingredient... a built-in anti-freeze which acts as a carburetor defroster and helps prevent cold start stalling. It's especially good in cars with automatic transmissions, where restarting after stalling is more troublesome. In addition to this protection, you get Esso Extra's famous combination of qualities... quick starting, fast warm-up, high anti-knock, power, and long mileage... everything you need for Happy Motoring from the instant you touch the starter. Is it any wonder more motorists use Esso Extra than any other premium gasoline in the area served by Esso Dealers?

Three in Stichter Lodge Honored as 50-Year Men

Three members of Stichter Lodge, 254, F. & A. M., were honored last night for 50 years of service each to the lodge.

They are Elmer H. Young, 129 Walnut street; Wilmer N. Keck, Bell lodge, Pottstown Star Route, and James H. Updegrave, 160 North Evans street.

Earl Himmelberger, district deputy grand master of the 10th Masonic district presented the three men with emblems of gold to wear in their lapels. The emblems are inscribed: "For 50 years of Service to Masonry."

THE PRESENTATION was made on behalf of the Right Worshipful

Grand Lodge of the Free and Accepted Masons of Pennsylvania. Updegrave is former treasurer and secretary of Keystone Drawn Steel company. Keck is former owner of Pottstown abattoir, and Young is former president of Pottstown Pipe Products company.

Also at the meeting at the lodge home, King and Franklin streets, was an honoring of past masters of Stichter lodge.

Three Pastors Greet 37 New Members of St. James Lutheran

Pastors of two other denominations joined with the Rev. Edward S. Horn, pastor of St. James Lutheran church, to welcome 37 new members at a reception last night.

The visiting pastors were the Rev. A. Burtis Hallock Jr., pastor of First Presbyterian, who entertained the 125 new and older members present with slides of his trip to Europe the past summer, and the Rev. Paul C. Scheirer, pastor of St. John's Reformed.

The Rev. Scheirer led the group in games and stunts, then did the calling while they square-danced to records of country music.

After a welcoming address by the Rev. Horn, each member joining St. James church during the past year, including 14 received since Palm Sunday, was given a red rose in token of welcome.

MRS. J. WAYNE KNAUSE and the pastor's wife handed out the flowers.

Coffee and tea were poured for the group by Mrs. Whitney A. Senders and Mrs. Howard W. Bartholomew.

Bifocal glasses were invented by Benjamin Franklin.

Power Steering! It's yours in Chevrolet for 1953 and in no other low-priced car! This wonderful new feature, optional on all models at extra cost, marks the most important advance in driver convenience and safety since the automatic transmission, which Chevrolet also introduced into its field. Power Steering makes steering virtually effortless on all roads and at all speeds. It permits you to park, even in a tight space, with finger-tip ease. It cuts steering effort approximately 80%; reduces driver fatigue; makes driving simpler, safer and more enjoyable than ever before. But come in! See and drive Chevrolet for 1953 with Power Steering and all its other exclusive advantages! Continuation of standard equipment and trim as illustrated is dependent on availability of material.
